

The Mont Saint Michel plays badminton!

Mont Saint Michel is a French town surrounded by water and connected to the mainland by a road. It owes its name to the statue of Saint Michel placed at the top of the abbey. It is a UNESCO listed monument. 3 000 000 Tourists visit the site by year.